New Member registrations due by Saturday, March 13th *****

Note: Our current members are offered priority registration and they will take up a good number of spots. On the form below please list at least your top 6 preferred class times and days (Example: Tuesday, 5:45, Thurs, 6:15, etc...). Because of limited pool space we are unable to offer every skill level during each 30 min. class. The level that will be taught in each time slot will be dictated off of demand (based off of the registrations I receive.) The more flexibility you have with scheduling, the better chance your child has of getting a spot. The more scheduling info you provide, the better chance you have of getting a spot. When I am putting the classes together I will not have time to stop and call people to see if a certain time works for you...that is why I need you to completely fill out this form so I know all your scheduling options. Thanks for your help with this.

GROUP LESSONS (SwimAmerica Curriculum)

(Group lessons are offered to kids 5 yrs to 11 yrs old. Your child must be 5 years old at the start of the session to be eligible.)

• Spring, 2010: Tues and Thurs classes -13 x 30 minute lessons with no more than 5 students per coach. $202 (This includes the $15 registration/insurance fee for 2010. Every student must pay this fee for 2010.) The Saturday and Sunday sessions are 12 weeks (no class July 3, 4), so the fee is $188 for Saturday or Sunday. If you list Saturday or Sunday for any of your class choices, pay $188. If you get scheduled on a non-Saturday or Sunday you can pay the difference later. (Please write a separate check for each child.) Each first-time student will receive a free SwimAmerica swim suit which will serve as their class uniform. The boys wear "jammers," which look like bike shorts (not Speedos), the girls wear a one-piece competition style suit. The kids will get their suit on the first day. (Please keep the top half of this form. You will receive an email confirmation of class enrollment sometime after March 21.
